Dear Editor:

Brilliant editorial: Stuck in Neutral \(http://www.nsnews.com/opinion/editorial/editorial-stuck-in-neutral-1.2136026\), Friday, Dec. 18.

You nailed everything perfectly. It is a wonder that the B.C. Liberals were re-elected in 2013 after the many scandals and the HST fiasco.

The state of TransLink has been at issue for far too long, yet Christy Clark and her minions fail to address the problem.

Just as they fail to address the problems related to our children in care and how they are hypocritical when it comes to big business and the environment.

You sum it up: "And it's clear now: No amount of logic, lobbying, clear public opinion or newspaper editorial is ever going to lead to a change in how TransLink operates. An election might, though."
