LETTER: Condoville could be worse

Dear Editor:

Let there be ringing of bells, singing, dancing in the street and much merriment.

Why? Because a building going up at Pemberton and Marine Drive won't be another ugly, tacky-tacky, gerry-built, overpriced, rabbit-hutched, teeny-weeny-roomed condo — the very essence of density.

The sketch showed a fairly modest, two- or three-floor commercial building — something that should help increase the North Shore economy without adding many more cars to increasingly busy Marine.

Too bad Sam's Market had to go, but it could have been a lot worse in Condoville. Let the celebration begin.
