

THE UNIVERSITY WOMEN'S CLUB of VANCOUVER at HYCROFT

2014 Dialogues on our City's Future

Tuesday Dialogues from 7 pm to 9:30 pm (Doors open 6:30)

Moderated by Dr. Penny Gurstein, UBC Director SCARP

Jan 21 Dr. Tom Hutton, Professor SCARP

"Vancouver as a sustainable city" Is this statement Rhetoric or Reality?

Feb 4 Dr. Larry Frank, Professor SCARP

Environmental and Health Impacts of Community Design: What are the Tools for creating Co-Benefits?

Feb 18 Andy Yan, Planner, Bing Thom Architects and Adjunct Professor SCARP

*Explore the 10 data points you should know about your City, from demographics to civic participation, to real estate ownership.
What might it take to create our own "Good City of Vancouver"?*

March 4 Dr. Maged Senbel, Assistant Professor SCARP

What are the Current Challenges and New Trends in Public Engagement for Neighborhood Planning?

March 18 Dr. Leonie Sandercock, Professor SCARP

*The Impossible Contradictions: Urban Indigenous Planning in Canada.
How does the increasing presence of urban indigenous peoples impact community and regional planning?*

Admission: UWCV Members $5 + tax, Non-Members $10 + tax. Please register by phone (604) 731- 4661 or online at www.uwcvancouver.ca prior to each evening.

The UWCV Federation Committee and HHPF are presenting the 2014 Dialogues in collaboration with UBC School of Community and Regional Planning (SCARP).

a place of mind

THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA