

NORTH VANCOUVER COMMUNITY CULTURAL VISIONING WORKSHOP

AN INVITATION TO PARTICIPATE

How can we ensure the continued vitality of the arts and cultural community in North Vancouver?

How can we enhance the quality, variety and visibility of local arts and cultural activities?

How do we infuse arts and culture in our daily lives and experiences?

We're looking for your answers to these and other questions at a COMMUNITY CULTURAL VISIONING WORKSHOP:

WHERE District of North Vancouver Municipal Hall
WHEN Thursday May 24, 2001
TIME 5:00 – 9:00pm. (light dinner provided from 4:30 – 5:00pm)

This workshop will help set the priorities for cultural services and funding over the next five years. It will examine how we can build on what has been established and how we can continue to nurture new creative expressions and opportunities. Key themes for discussion include:

- Supporting and stimulating artists
- Creating opportunities for young people to participate in the arts
- Building a cultural event/festival base
- Promoting, advertising and marketing local cultural products
- Building the physical infrastructure for arts and culture
- Building community and organisational capacity

Please plan to attend this important planning session.

CULTURAL PLAN
STEERING COMMITTEE

Michael Conway Baker
Composer/Musician

Heather Cairns
North Vancouver Community
Arts Council

Feri Demehri
O'Shihan Cultural Society

Margo Gram
North Vancouver Recreation
Commission

Robin Inglis
North Vancouver Museum and Archives

John Kennedy
Volunteer

Bill MacDonald
Artists for Kids Trust

Laura MacMaster
District of North Vancouver
Tourism, Arts & Culture

Lori Phillips
North Shore Arts Commission

Richard White
City of North Vancouver

Don Bell
Mayor, District of North Vancouver

Barbara Sharp
Mayor, City of North Vancouver

Please confirm your participation by calling Lori Phillips at the North Shore Arts Commission Office at 980-3559.