

north shore news

Bosa Development puts call out for public art proposals

Christine Lyon / North Shore News

May 15, 2015 12:00 AM

File photo Shutterstock

Calling all artists: Bosa Development and the District of North Vancouver are seeking a team to create public artwork for Lynn Valley town centre.

Bosa is proposing to construct a mixed-use commercial and residential development near Mountain Highway and Lynn Valley Road that includes the addition of three new streets and two public plazas.

According to the Request for Expressions of Interest and Qualifications document, the redevelopment site is envisioned to be a “palette” of integrated art, stand-alone iconic pieces and signature artwork.

The total budget for three commissions is $445,800.

Interested teams must be comprised of a minimum of two artists residing in Canada. Teams that include architects, landscape architects or other design professionals won't be considered.

The submission deadline is Friday, June 19 at 2 p.m. Visit artsoffice.ca (<http://artsoffice.ca>) for details.

© 2015 North Shore News