Qualifications for Office

A person is qualified to be nominated, elected, and to hold office as a member of local government if they meet the following criteria:

- age 18 or older on general voting day;
- a Canadian citizen;
- resident of British Columbia for at least six months immediately before the day nomination papers are filed; and,
- not disqualified by the Local Government Act or any other enactment from being nominated for, being elected to, holding office, or be otherwise disqualified by law.

Mail Ballot Voting

Mail ballot voting will be available to voters with disabilities who cannot travel to a voting place and to voters who will be absent from the District on the General Voting Day (November 15) and all three Advance Voting Days (November 5, 8, and 10). In order to receive a mail ballot package you must first complete a Mail Ballot Application available online at dnv.org/vote2014 or in person at the District Hall. If you are not able to pick up a mail-in ballot package, please have your application to the Chief Election Officer by October 24, 2014 to allow sufficient time for a package to be mailed.

Elector Qualifications

Resident Electors:

- age 18 or older on general voting day;
- a Canadian citizen;
- a resident of British Columbia for at least six months immediately before the day of registration;
- a resident of the District of North Vancouver for at least 30 days immediately before the day of registration; and,
- not disqualified by any enactment from voting in an election or otherwise disqualified by law.

Non-resident Property Electors:

- age 18 or older on general voting day;
- a Canadian citizen;
- a resident of British Columbia for at least six months immediately before the day of registration;
- a registered owner of real property in the District of North Vancouver for at least 30 days immediately before the day of registration;
- not entitled to register as a resident elector;
- not disqualified by any enactment from voting in an election or otherwise disqualified by law; and,
- if there is more than one registered owner of the property, only one of those individuals may, with the written consent of the majority of the owners, register as a non-resident property elector.

List of Registered Electors

Beginning September 30, 2014 until the close of general voting for the election on November 15, 2014, a copy of the list of registered electors will, upon signature, be available for public inspection at the District of North Vancouver Clerk's Office during regular office hours Monday to Friday, excluding statutory holidays.

Request to Omit Personal Information

An elector may request that their address or other information about them be omitted from, or obscured on, the list of electors. Upon request, the Chief Election Officer will amend the list, which is available to the public and candidates, by omitting or obscuring the elector's information.

Objection to Registration of an Elector

An objection to the registration of a person whose name appears on the list of registered electors may be made in accordance with the Local Government Act until 4pm on October 10, 2014. An objection must be in writing and may only be made by a person entitled to be registered as an elector of the District of North Vancouver and can only be made on the basis that the person whose name appears has died or is not qualified to be registered as an elector of the District of North Vancouver.
