> Notice of Motion - Report Councillor Crist

> That Council officially endorse "Operation Red Nose" Safe Driving Campaign > as requested in a letter received by Mayor and Council on Nov 15-2001 from > Bob Beaudoin of the North Vancouver Detachment of the RCMP on behalf of > "Operation Red Nose Organizing Committee" as per the North Vancouver > Rotary Club and to that effect

> 1) put an advertisement in the North Shore News encouraging community and > volunteer support for the campaign at a cost to the District not > exceeding $500.- to be drawn from Council reserve and further that

> 2) the message also be conveyed through the District Web and that

> 3) the Mayor include the message in a proclamation on or about Nov 26
> -2001 and further that

> 4) the District designate a member of Council to attend the official > launching of the Campaign at the Capilano ICBC Claims Center at 4 pm on > Dec. 1st-2001.

> Rationale

> The North Vancouver Rotary club, Host organization of Operation Red Nose
> North and West Vancouver has asked Council support for their Campaign > Operation Red Nose which is a safe driving campaign that has operated > in Canada for 14 years. The program has received national recognition and > has recently gone international. Awards received by Operation Red Nose > include the ICBC counter attack award for significant contributions to > impaired driving prevention

> The campaign is endorsed by many high profile individuals and > organizations and merits Council endorsement and support.
