If renewal application and payment are not received by end of March 2002, membership will lapse along with boat storage and locker space. Initiation fees will then be required to reinstate lapsed memberships and boat and locker storage space requirements will be placed on the waiting list, along with all other paid membership applications on a first-arrived-and-paid, first-served-basis.

When storage and/or membership fees become overdue (30 days), the Rear Commodore may, after giving reasonable notice, ask the bailiff to remove the craft concerned at the owner's expense.
