Hi Fred:

Nice to hear from you - no, I will not run again - not for anything. Fighting mediocrity and stupidity for 25 years is long enough. I feel we could have done great things especially in the District, but it was not to be. Against stupidity even the gods fight in vain. It is also true of course, that there are many smart and decent people in the District. Indeed, the vast majority of our people are hardworking and deserve better. If they have a flaw it would be identifying the enemy. When you come back you will have to tell me about your trip.

Yours truly,

Ernie Crist

Hi Ernie,

How are you? Are you running for the mayor position this fall? I think majority of the Iranians will support you. The oil money has made gulf estates crazy. There are hotels under the ocean and many more projects like this in that area. I guess Western Imperialism always find ways to milk them. Either by selling arms or building fancy non functional projects.

Fred
