A MESSAGE FROM ERNIE CRIST;

I like Jane and I will vote for her for certain. IN FACT I WILL ASK ALL MY FRIENDS TO VOTE FOR HER AS WELL. I HAVE MANY FRIENDS, FAR MORE THAN I HAVE ENEMIES, BESIDES MY ENEMIES ARE NOT IMPORTANT ONLY MY FRIENDS ARE IMPORTANT.

ELECTION NEWS about School District 44

Here are some facts:

Our School Board is in need of fresh energy and new ideas.

Jane Thornthwaite, a new and exciting independent School Trustee candidate, will be an asset to the next Board.

If you want to ensure Jane has a spot on School Board, ONLY VOTE FOR JANE (even though the ballot allows you to choose four). Her chances of getting in are dependent on the total number of votes she gets in comparison to the others.

MEET JANE

Dear District voters:

I am Jane Thornthwaite and I am an energetic and committed new candidate for School Trustee for the District of North Vancouver. I am hoping you will visit my website and consider voting for me.

I am a long-time PAC and soccer mom with three children in the public school system right now. I am a Registered Dietitian by profession, and I volunteer in the North Shore Girls Soccer Club as the U8 Coordinator and team manager for the U14 age group. I have also been a Zone Coordinator and Captain in the Block Watch program.

Presently, I am on the executive of the Blueridge and Windsor Parent Advisory Councils; however, I have decided that I can offer more to the families in our community by taking a leadership role as a School Trustee.

I believe School Trustees have to be more accountable and visible in our communities and do a better job as the public voice in public education. I am running independently --- I am not part of a slate or political party.

I want to bring the North Vancouver Districts schools' concerns to the School Board Table. I ask for your support on November 19, 2005.

Sincerely,
Jane Thornthwaite

District of North Vancouver, November 19th, 2005
