RE:

Subject: RE:

Date: Thu, 17 Nov 2005 16:21:17 -0800

From: "Ernie Crist" <ernie_crist@dnv.org>

To: <fonvca@fonvca.org>

CC: "David Dixon" <daviddixon@shaw.ca>, "Dave Sadler" <davesadler@telus.net>, <roger@basam.com>, "Bruce Crowe" <gowithcrowe@telus.net>, "Wayne Hunter" <wayne@waynehunter.ca>,

"Sabine Jessen" <sjessen@shaw.ca>, "Salim Kaderali" <jetatour@telus.net>, "Mike Little" <mlittle@westran.ca>, "Doug MacKay-Dunn" <macdunn@uniserve.com>, <maxzahedi@yahoo.com>, <gdiebolt@telus.net>, <sandy.fleming@telus.net>

> From: Ernie Crist > Sent: Thursday, November 17, 2005 4:06 PM > To: 'Newsroom@northshoreoutlook.com' > Subject: > The Editor: > > > A hearty thank you to the OUTLOOK for co-sponsoring the District all > candidates meeting on Wednesday Nov 16 in Edgemont Village. Your > reporter, Jennifer Maloney, who handled the question and answer part > of the meeting should be given a special vote of thanks. She did an > excellent job. > > The only criticism I would make is that she allowed a District > Mayoralty Candidate and a District Councillor to dictate whether a > question, from the floor (politely I might add) should be allowed. > Richard Walton, who is a Mayoralty candidate, and Mr. Alan Nixon, an > incumbent Councillor, demanded that the question not be allowed. The question was about the District Heritage Fund. > > > It was not only a legitimate question but it, in light of the > misinformation handed out by the District, the question was timely. > For members of District Council to demand of Ms Maloney that she not > allow the question because, in their opinion, the figures were not > accurate was not only in poor taste but shows a frightening contempt > not only for the voters but for civic democracy. > It was not up to the District candidates to determine whether or not > the question be allowed. As it is, I can verify that the figures posed from the floor were far more in line with the facts than those > provided by Mr. Walton and Mr. Nixon. This may well have been the > reason for the protest by the two incumbents. Indeed, today's > editorial in the OUTLOOK reveals a picture of District's finances far > less rosy than that painted by either Mr. Nixon or Mr Walton. > > However, this was an election meeting not a District Council meeting > where District Councillors can dictate the rules of democratic > procedure at their whim but a meeting for the benefit of District > voters. > > Yours truly, > Ernie Crist > > >

winmail.dat Name: winmail.dat Type: application/ms-tnef Encoding: base64